

At Parkend, the release of the final selector, and therefore of the call, is under the control of the caller. Removing the caller's loop, releases relay A, which in turn releases relay B by short circuiting it. Note that release of the call could also be controlled by the called line if the strap between U26 and U28 is inserted. The release of relay D could then cause the B relay short circuit.

Parkend Exchange
Final Selector
Release